Dear Sir or Madam:

The Alaska Safety Advisory Council (ASAC) is proud to announce the 37th Annual Alaska Governor's Safety and Health Conference. This year's conference theme, "Safety is No Accident" serves as a reminder that employee safety is everyone's responsibility. During times of diminishing resources and economic constraint, making sound investment decisions becomes even more vital. Safety doesn't come about by accident; sustainable, desired safety outcomes are only achieved through purposeful investment in our workforce and programs. Advancing the strength of a safety program has proven to be a sound investment for personnel, corporations and the economy. Generous contributions from sponsors like you have made this conference a success. I am asking for your continued support.

The conference will be held April 3-4, 2018, at the Egan Civic and Convention Center in Anchorage, Alaska. Exhibitors and speakers from around the country will participate in the event to discuss and demonstrate the latest innovations in safety and health products and services. Under the recommendations of the ASAC, the State of Alaska will recognize organizations and individuals for excellence and innovation in safety performance.

I encourage you to send your frontline workers, managers and safety and health personnel to this event to gain knowledge and discover new tools to ensure your organization's success and prevention of workplace losses. If there is a particular subject you would like covered at this event, you are welcome to reach out to our conference committee as we base our program around the needs of our valued Alaska industries.

With your continued support, we can continue to make Alaska a safer place to work and a more competitive place to do business. Thank you in advance for your leadership and commitment to improve safety and health in Alaska. If you have any questions, please contact the Alaska Safety Advisory Council at 907-269-4940 or email krista.childers@alaska.gov.

Sincerely,
